Cheers to 25 years!

A DAY BASH LUNCHEON & CELEBRATION

Pride Awards 2018

Friday, January 26 • The Westin Charlotte

The Pride Awards are presented annually to honor achievement in the African-American community. This year's event will be a grand luncheon and "Day Bash" celebration to commemorate 25 years in the Queen City.

Celebrating excellent achievement of African-Americans in the Charlotte region for 25 years.

The hero who will be recognized at Pride Awards 2018 will be an outstanding Charlotte African - American MILLENNIAL, who has achieved much with regard to innovation on the job, entrepreneurship or community involvement. He or she may be well-known or a behind-the-scenes individual currently unrecognized. All qualified nominees will be considered. Individuals may self-nominate.

Nominees must be African-American residents of the Charlotte region. They must meet the criteria as outlined on this page. Employees of Pride Communications and their immediate families are not eligible.

The winner will receive a MONETARY AWARD and be honored at Pride Awards 2018.
One nonprofit organization will receive a monetary donation.
